cord, a mutual friend making the arrangement between them.

The plaintiff admitted that he had received money from Tuan Amoy, as the defendant had stated, but he alleged that that was upon an entirely different account. He denied the alleged agreement for settlement with $50, but he stated that the defendant agreed to pay him the remaining $240 in instalments of $50 a month. The plaintiff was brought about the arrangement as called by the desire of his Lordship, and he entirely corroborated Mr. Ng Ma Kwan's version.

His Lordship gave judgment for the plaintiff for the amount claimed with costs, but did not allow interest.

GEORGE HASSUN V. HASUN OSMAN, $152.

Mr. Moopan appeared for the plaintiff. This action was for the value of some jewellery entrusted to the defendant by the plaintiff. The master was referred to the deposition of Mr. Cassimhaw, who decided that the defendant must return to plaintiff and pay Rs. 32 for some he had disposed of at Bombay.

Judgment was in accordance with the award.

DSGD, and master of the Doria Lodge at Chinkiang, and others.

The arrival of the District Grand Master delegate was then announced, and his parent having been received a donation consisting of W. Bro. Macgrae, Short Morris, Lalasa, Evans, Anderson and Fisher was appointed to receive him and introduce him to the Installding Master. The patent under the signature of the Head of the Valley, and of the District Grand Lodge of Dordogne, having been read, the ceremony of installding was very impressively performed by R. W. Bro. Cornelius Thomas, R. W. Bro. Miller, having been obligated, invested and placed in the chair, was proclaimed from the East, West, and South and duly saluted with Grand Honours. Handel's "Amen, ye Brave" was then very effectively sung by Bro. Manning.

The Lodge was then opened, and the Installding Master, said—E. W. Sir, it affords me great pleasure as my first official set to nominate W. Bro. Kingmill, as to my Deputy in this District. He is a Brother well known to all Masons of every Constitution here, one who has taken the greatest interest in Masonry, and who is well versed in all our ancient laws and usages. I will therefore ask you to be good enough to invest him, after the Secretary has read the patent.

W. Bro. Kingmill's patent as Deputy District Grand Master was then read, and Bro. Kingmill was obligated, invested with due ceremony, placed in his chair of office, proclaimed from the East, West, and South and duly saluted with Grand Honours.

The Lodge was then closed, and the officers of the Lodge were left in charge, and the Officers were duly saluted.

The Masonic hymn, "Hail, Masonry Divine," was then sung, the solo being rendered by Bro. Nouvour.

In the course of the ceremony several marches were played by W. Bro. Fontaine, and hymns were sung by the Brethren.

W. Bro. Morgan then addressed the Brethren, saying—Right Worshipful Six, Worship Masters, Worshipful Past Masters, and Brethren, in addressing you for the first time as District Grand Master, I should be wanting in respect to the high office I have been given to H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, M. W. Grand Master of England, and the most active member of the Royal Household.

I have done my best to make the Brethren, who, while awaiting the arrival of the new Master, will be most anxious to see him, as comfortable as possible.
